I have misplaced my Aadhaar enrolment slip

I have lost my Aadhaar

I want to download my e-Aadhaar

Common problems : easy solutions

If you have internet access

- Log on to <https://resident.uidai.net.in> and click on the link 'Find EID/UID'
- Fill in your name, email ID or mobile number in the required boxes. The email ID or mobile number should be the same as provided at the time of enrolment
- Enter the security code as given on the screen
- Click on 'Get OTP'. You will receive OTP on your email ID or mobile number
- Enter the received OTP in the relevant box & click on 'Verify OTP'
- After verification, the Aadhaar number will be sent to your email ID or mobile number
- Now, you can even download your e-Aadhaar

Or

Visit Aadhaar Enrolment Centre

- Visit the nearest Permanent Aadhaar Enrolment Centre
- If you have lost your Aadhaar, but retain the enrolment ID, provide that at the Centre
- In case you don't remember your EID, give a few details, such as your name, date of birth and address along with your finger-print
- You will be provided your e-Aadhaar

If you have lost your Aadhaar letter but remember your enrolment ID/Aadhaar number

You can download e-Aadhaar from <https://resident.uidai.net.in>
