About the Institute

National Institute of Technology, (Formerly Regional Engineering College, established in 1963). Kurukshetra is one among the foremost institutes of national importance imparting higher technical education in India. This Institute was conferred upon the status of Deemed University on June 26, 2002. Since then, it has been named as National Institute of Technology, Kurukshetra (Deemed University). National Institute of Technology, Kurukshetra is a residential institute well known for its dedicated faculty, staff and state-of-the-art infrastructure. The institute offers B.Tech. M.Tech., M.C.A., M.B.A and Ph.D. programmes. The Institute enjoys an excellent placement service for its graduate and post graduate students.

About the Department

The branch of Electronics and Communication Engineering was started in the year 1971 under the aegis of Electrical Engineering Department. The "Department of Electronics and Communication Engineering" came into existence in the year 1973. In 1987, Computer Engineering branch was also started and the department was renamed as "Electronics, Communication and Computer Engineering". In 2003, the department was again renamed as "Electronics and Communication Engineering" because of inception of "Computer Engineering Department" separately. The department started M.Tech. program in ECE and VLSI design in the year of 1987 and 2007, respectively. Presently, M.Tech. (VLSI Design) is being offered by the School of VLSI Design and Embedded Systems independently.

Objectives of STTP

The primary objective of the FDP is "Efficient Document Writing" of the faculties and research enthusiasts of the Institutes. The program will facilitate the researchers/faculty members to understand the essential concepts of research, methodology, issues, technical writing through a totally practical and hands-on approach. This program aims to provide necessary training on reliable software with and simulators that can be utilized for writing research papers and proposals. The key highlights of the program include the detailed concept of Research Collaboration, Preparation, Navigation, Communication, Publishing, Novelty and Similarity Indexes.

Major Topics of STTP
