TECHSPARDHA

(15-17 APRIL-2022)

Techspardha is a national level annual techno-managerial students' festival of National Institute of Technology, Kurukshetra. It started in 1995 as "Technospect" (later changed to Literati). The year 2013 marked the Golden Jubilee of NIT Kurukshetra, same year it was renamed as Techspardha.

Etymologically, the word 'Techspardha' is composed of two words, 'Tech' in English is a contraction of technology and 'Spardha' in Hindi means competition.

Techspardha is hosting about 70 competitive events showcasing innovations, startups, creativity of students that includes (but not limited to):

- Technical Competitions
- Exhibitions
- Guest lectures
- Workshops

Inaugural is scheduled in the evening of 14 April 2022 and Competitive events of Techspardha '22 will be from 15-17 April 2022.
