Alumni Colloquium At NIT Kurukshetra Inspires Students With Legacy, Leadership & Learning

Jasbir Singh Duggal

Kurukshetra (The Hawk): The National Institute of Technology (NIT) Kurukshetra came alive with nostalgia and inspiration as the Alumni Cell hosted its Wednesday Colloquium in the Senate Hall on September 17, 2025. The event served as a vibrant platform for students and alumni to reconnect, exchange ideas, and celebrate the institute's enduring legacy.

The colloquium was graced by Director Prof. B. V. Ramana Reddy, Dean (Student Welfare) & Professor In-charge Prof. Prathiba Agarwal, Associate Dean (Alumni) Prof. Dixit Garg, along with senior faculty members and an enthusiastic student gathering.

A key highlight of the day was the motivational address by distinguished alumnus Mr. Gaurav Sabharwal (ECE, Batch of 1987-1991), currently serving as Director, National Maritime Academy, India.

At EY Information Company. With a career spanning over 25 years in leadership roles such as Profit Centre Head, Sales Head, and Engagement Manager, Mr. Sabharwal captivated the audience with his insights into strategic leadership, project management, and large-scale IT solutions.

He emphasized the power of alumni networking in unlocking career opportunities and advised students to strengthen industry-academia linkages to bridge the gap between classroom learning and practical challenges. His interactive session sparked curiosity among students, who eagerly sought his guidance on careers, higher education, and internships.

The presence of esteemed faculty members including Prof. Yogesh Agarwal, Prof. Shelly Vadhwa, Prof. Y. Dwivedi, Prof. Anshu Pasricha, and Prof. Amandeep Kaur further elevated the event's academic value.

The Alumni Cell expressed heartfelt gratitude to all participants, reaffirming its commitment to strengthening alumni ties. The colloquium marked not just a celebration of achievements but also a commitment to mentorship, collaboration, and future growth of the NIT Kurukshetra community.
